Fall 2013

Consul's Corner

After a very busy work party, we are finally settled into the new chapter house. Classes have started and the chapter has gone into recruitment mode. Every "rushee" has been amazed by the size of our new house. We are preparing to finish up the recruitment period and select those who will be receiving bids. A lot of credit is due to our Recruitment Chairs, Jabari White '14 and Chris Lee '15. They have been working very hard the past few weeks organizing all of our events.

With the pinning ceremony coming up on September 23, the undergraduates are very excited for recruitment to be over so that we can begin the fun of pledging. We are hoping for another large class of over 20 pledges. Our Magister, Vince Kocher '15, has been preparing all summer for training our next class of pledges to be the best Sigma Chis they can be.

Finally, the event that everyone is truly excited about is the Oct 5th Dedication. We are expecting huge numbers of alumni to return to Troy to see the new chapter house, to hear speeches from President Jackson, Mayor Rosimilia, Grand Consul Greenberg, and many others, and to dance to Oedipus and the Mothers. In a period of 3 days, Brother Bob Jones '73 managed to raise over $3000 in donations from other alumni to pay for the registration fee for all undergraduates of the chapter. We would like to thank everyone who donated to his fundraiser and we hope to see all of you in October.

79th Grand Chapter

I had the pleasure of representing Delta Psi at this year's 79th Grand Chapter. Undergraduates, alumni, and officers from all over the US and Canada convened at the Renaissance Hotel in Washington, D.C. to conduct the fraternity's business. The fraternity elected all of our Grand Officers, including electing Michael Greenberg our 68th Grand Consul.

The short weekend was jam-packed with Sigma Chi events. In addition to electing the future of our fraternity, we initiated new members of the Order of Constantine, welcome our new Significant Sigs, and celebrated the history of D.C. and Sigma Chi with a Congressional Lunch. Throughout the weekend, I had the opportunity to socialize with Sigs from all over the country; past Grand Consuls; our outgoing international sweetheart, Sydney Binnington; and our newly elected international sweetheart, Mary Sugden. I'm looking forward to seeing what good our new leaders can do in the next two years!

Homecoming and Chapter House Dedication

Kevin Marvin '15

Construction is complete and the undergraduates are settling into their new home at 58 Pinewoods Ave. As we try to contain our excitement at the prospect of living in this beautiful new gift, we want to share this excitement with and deeply thank every brother of the Delta Psi chapter of Sigma Chi who has come before us. The best way that we know how to do this would be in person.

The weekend of RPI's Homecoming—Saturday, October 5th—the other undergraduate brothers and I will be helping to facilitate all of the proceedings that will be going on at the renovated chapter house. Along with remarks from guests such as Grand Consul Michael Greenberg, the Mayor of Troy, and RPI President Shirley Ann Jackson, we will be giving tours of the house, food and drinks will be consumed, old friends will be reunited, and stories from the past and present will be heard by all. The Pomeroy Chapter House at 58 Pinewoods is as much the house of all brother-alumni as it is ours as undergraduates, and we hope to see everyone there.

Fall 2013 Recruitment

Brothers and rushees play a game of ultimate frisbee at one of our rush events.

This is the first time we are having rush in the Pomeroy Chapter House. Brothers are actively participating in rush by talking to potential members, grilling food for barbecues, and driving potential new members back and forth between the house and campus. On September 7, we took 26 “rushees” to Six Flags New England and enjoyed Five Guys afterwards. A new event at the Albany Indoor Rock Gym showed how our brotherhood supports and motivates everyone. And at the annual Alumni Dinner, rushees were given the opportunity to meet several distinguished alumni whose continued participation helped exemplify the lifelong commitment that comes with being a Sigma Chi.
